DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-11 are pending.

Applicant's traversal, the amendment to the specification, and the amendment to claim 7 in paper filed on 10/24/06 is acknowledged and considered.

Election/Restrictions

Claims 1-6 and 10-11 remain withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 5/30/06.

Information Disclosure Statement

The information disclosure statement (IDS) submitted on 12/19/06 was filed after the mailing date of the non-final rejection on 7/27/06. The submission is in compliance with the provisions of 37 CFR 1.97. Accordingly, the information disclosure statement is being considered by the examiner.

The supplementary search report has been considered, but not initialed on the PTO-1449 because the report is not considered a published document.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter, which the applicant regards as his invention.

Art Unit: 1635

Claims 7-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The term "GenBank Accession No. M38061" in claims 7-9 is a relative term which renders the claim indefinite. The term " GenBank Accession No. M38061" is not defined by the claim, the specification does not provide a standard for ascertaining the requisite degree, and one of ordinary skill in the art would not be reasonably apprised of the scope of the invention. The metes and bounds of the term are undefined because the skilled artisan understands that GenBank Accession Numbers are updated over time (e.g., to correct sequence errors, revision).

NOTE: If applicant intends to overcome the rejection by replacing the GenBank Accession No. with a sequence, see 37 CFR 1.57.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.

4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 7-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Sommer et al. (Science 249, 1580-1585, 1990) taken with Shine et al. (WO 97/17090).

The limitation "for treating a brain tumor" in instant claim 7 and claims dependent therefrom does not have patentable over the prior art teaching the vector. See MPEP 2111.02.

The limitation "a gene introduction kit for treating a brain tumor" in instant claim 9 does not have patentable over the prior art teaching the vector. See MPEP 2111.02.

Sommer teaches GenBank Accession No. M38061. However, Sommer does not specifically teach making an adenoviral vector comprising the sequence.

However, at the time the invention was made, adenoviral vectors were well known to one of ordinary skill in the art for producing proteins in vitro as exemplified by Shine (page 2).

It would have been prima facie obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to combine the teaching of Sommer taken with, namely to produce an adenoviral vector comprising the sequence comprising the GenBank Accession No. M38061.

Art Unit: 1635

One of ordinary skill in the art would have been motivated to combine the teaching to produce the protein for in vitro studies.

Therefore the invention as a whole would have been prima facie obvious to one ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made.

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 7-9 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a).

Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
